

TRANSLATION OF UG and PG MOOCs IN TO REGIONAL LANGUAGES

The Consortium for Educational Communication, popularly known as CEC, is one of the Inter University Centres set up by the University Grants Commission of India. As a premier institution for development and dissemination of educational e-content, CEC committed to transforming education through new ICT-based technologies with emphasis on learner-centric pedagogy for the benefit of web learners across the country.

At present , CEC is in process to convert its Massive Open Online Courses into 8 different regional languages- Hindi, Gujarati, Bengali, Marathi, Tamil, Telugu, Kannada and Malayalam. Regarding this, CEC has initiated the process of inviting Expression of Interest (EOI) from Academicians/Experts/Researchers who have good command over above mentioned language/languages for the translation work of MOOCs. The UG and PG MOOCS to be translated are originally available in English Language.

If you are interested in the translation work, please visit <http://cec.nic.in/cec/eoittranslation> and fill and submit the EOI. List of courses be translated is also available in this link.

For more details , please contact Education Multimedia Research Centre, University of Calicut (www.emmrccalicut.org). Rajan Thomas, JRO, EMMRC - 9495108193